FAMED STYLIST BRINGS 'SWINGY' BOB TO CENTERVILLE

If you're looking for a great bob cut, look no further than the stylists at Jungle Red Salon, 6382 Far Hills Ave, Centerville.

World-renowned hair stylist Phillip Wilson, the International Creative Director for FHI Heat, recently paid a visit to the salon and schooled its stylists in the free form technique, salon owner Lisa Travis said.

The technique, despite its name, is very precise and leaves hair lying "beautifully," Travis said. The end result is perfect for bobs and long styles alike, and the "hair swings and moves like fabric."

Wilson has been voted one of the top hairdressers of the past 100 years by Modern Salon magazine, and has worked his magic on celebrities and royalty alike.

Travis said she and her stylists are looking forward to using the skills they learned from Wilson on their clients' hair.

"It was quite an honor for someone of his caliber to take notice of our little business," Travis said.

HOUSE/LOAS WEDDING

Heather Leigh House and Stephen Michael Loas were married on Saturday, July 25, 2009, at four o'clock in the afternoon at South Park United Methodist Church in Dayton. The double-ring ceremony was officiated by Dr. Brooks W. Heck of Dayton. Special music was provided by organist Dr. Sharon Vander Gheynst. Following the ceremony, the bride's family hosted a gala reception at the Dayton Country Club. The bride is the daughter of COL (Ret) Jonathan W. House of Houston, Texas and Susan D. House of Oakwood. The groom is the son of Rebecca Loas and John and Jan Loas of Parma, Ohio. Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, Heather wore a couture ivory gown of duchess satin by Kenneth Pool, which was accented with antique crystal beading. The gown's dramatic cathedral length train was beautifully complimented by her silk-edged, two tier cathedral length veil. Serving as Maid of Honor was Miss Stephanie Conway of Dayton. Bridesmaids included Miss Grace Jackson of Formby, England; Miss Emily Cherney of Broadview Heights, Ohio; and Miss Nicole Kinzeler of Columbus. Junior Bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth Redden of Oakwood. The Flower Girl was Miss Anna Porter of Oakwood. Serving as Best Man was the groom's brother, Joseph Loas of Chicago. Groomsmen included Alan Musko of Reynoldsburg, Ohio; Scott Phillips of Grandview, Ohio; Bryan Brzozowski of Hilliard, Ohio; and the bride's brother, Eric House of Columbus.

The bride is a graduate of Oakwood High School in Oakwood and Wittenberg University in Springfield, where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology. She also received a Masters Degree in Education and an Educational Specialist Degree from the University of Dayton. Heather is serving as a School Psychologist for the South-Western School District in Columbus. The groom is a graduate of Normandy High School in Parma, Ohio and earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in World Economics and Business from The Ohio State University and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Franklin University. After a honeymoon in wine country at the Finger Lakes in New York, the couple will make their home in Worthington, Ohio.
